

Bio

A successful small business owner and corporate executive, John has turned his passion for serving others into leadership roles in dozens of community, civic and faith based organizations.

The father of two boys, John has been active in the Boy Scouts and coaching youth sports. He is a fourth generation firefighter volunteering in Alpharetta and chairs the Public Safety Foundation.

He and his wife of over 16 years, Kari, have two terrific sons Will & Ryan, ages 13 and 7. The Albers are active members of Roswell United Methodist Church.